THE WAY CORNING ENFORCES THE LAW

Police Tell "Picketers" They Must Keep Away From Shotton Glass Works.

The twenty-one "walking delegates" sent to Corning by Local No. 68, of the American Flint Glass Workers' Union, to do "picket duty" at the Shotton Cut Glass Company's shop on Bridge street, have been notified by Chief of Police Seyter that they must not loiter about the Shotton glass factory. "You men must keep moving if you want to stay in Corning," Chief Seyter is reported to have said to the manager of the invaders from Brooklyn. "We will not permit any interference with the rights of other people. You men must stay away from the Shotton glass works and you must not obstruct the street or sidewalk."

Tuesday a special meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners was held at the City Hall. J. E. Bong, President of the Corning Business Men's Association, was present, as were also Chief Seyter and Patrolman Bond.

President Bong complained to the Commissioners that the so-called "labor picketers" from Brooklyn were interfering with the business of the Shotton Cut Glass company; that the "picketers" were causing men who needed work to keep away from the Shotton shop, and in view of the fact that the Business Men's Association had spent considerable money to induce the Shotton Company to establish business in Corning, he felt that the police authorities should take measures to protect any interference with the new industry. "Corning needs more jobs for its idle workmen," said President Bong, "and outsiders should not be permitted to come here and stir up strife."

Commissioner Denerlein said: "It is evident to me that these glass cutters who have come on from Brooklyn for the purpose of making trouble for the Shotton Cut Glass Company are violating the Penal Code. They have no right to intimidate workmen. I have been informed that some of our local glass cutters, who are out of work, would take jobs at the Shotton shop if they could go and come from their work without being accosted by these discontented workmen from Brooklyn. Chief of Police Seyter should compel these outsiders to keep away from the Shotton shop and should not allow them to loiter about the street in that neighborhood."

Tuesday morning Chief of Police Seyter went over to the Shotton Annex on a tour of inspection. He found a number of the Brooklyn "regulators" doing "picket duty" near the Shotton Annex, and politely informed these "picketers" that "picketing" would no longer be allowed in Corning.

It is said that on Monday a Police Commissioner of Corning was accosted by a Brooklyn "picket" while walking on Bridge street near the Shotton Annex.

"Are you a glass cutter?" the "picket" asked the Police Commissioner.

"I have cut glass," was the reply.

"Well, I would advise you to keep out of the Shotton shop," said the "picket." "The Shotton shop is a 'scab' shop."

The Police Commissioner said that he would consider the matter and passed on. A little farther up Bridge street the Police Commissioner was accosted by another "picket" and in an instant he was surrounded by half a dozen of the labor missionaries, all eager to induce him to stay away from the Shotton shop.

The Commissioner broke through the ring and went his way without making his identity known.

Chief of Police Seyter sent word to the man at the head of the delegation of "walking delegates" from Brooklyn, to appear in City Court with his associates, to explain the nature of business they are conducting in Corning. It is understood that the entire Brooklyn delegation will appear in City Court in answer to this invitation. The manager of the Shotton Cut Glass company's Annex has also been invited to meet the "picketers" in City Court.—Corning Evening Journal.

SPECIAL ATTRACTION SOON AT THE LYRIC

DURING WAYNE CELEBRATION

The Black Patti Musical Comedy Co. presents the latest musical success "Capt. Jasper," with the best colored talent obtainable, headed by the world-famous Sissleretta Jones, the Black Patti, the greatest of all colored singers, and Happy Julius Glenn, the funny colored comedian. "Somewhat different" is said to apply in comparing "Capt. Jasper" with the average colored shows, as there is a plot and a general consistency, and a reason for everything that is done that obviates the necessity for horse-play, and does away with that straining for a laugh effect. The play is written for laughing purposes only, and can apply and correctly be termed a laughing success, and will appear at the Lyric Wednesday evening, August 28.

BISHOP ISRAEL LEAVES FOR A MONTH'S VACATION.

The Rt. Rev. and Mrs. Rogers Israel left Friday for a month's visit at one of the quiet summer places along the St. Lawrence river. The bishop, who is one of the most strenuous and persevering workers among the clergy, has found the serenity of this chosen resting place after the test of several seasons' vacation there.—Erie Dispatch.

MARKED POSTAGE STAMPS USED TO TRAP MRS. DOLAN.

Mrs. Henry Dolan, of Susquehanna, arrested a few weeks ago, charged with having sent indecent and obscene post cards to residents of that place, was given a hearing before United States Commissioner Skinner one day last week and held in $500 bail for her appearance in court in Scranton in October. Her husband qualified as her bondsman.

For some time past, people of Susquehanna have been annoyed by receiving post cards which told this thing and that about so and so, who happened to be friends of the party receiving the card. In some instances the cards contained a general raking over of the party it was sent to in language unfit to be printed. Complaints were made to the postoffice authorities and it was decided to lay a trap for the sender.

Postal Inspector Sharpsteen of Honesdale, was assigned the task of apprehending the sender, and June 24 he went to Susquehanna. Circumstances pointed to Mrs. Dolan, and the inspector secured about forty two-cent stamps and marked them with numbers in such a way that the figures would not be noticed except on close inspection.

He gave them to the postoffice clerks at Susquehanna, with instructions that they were to be sold only to Mrs. Dolan. In less than a week she had bought them all, according to John Collins, one of the clerks. Afterward the inspector went to the houses of some parties who had complained, and found that they had received cards bearing the stamps which he testified he had marked. Her arrest followed. Assistant United States District Attorney A. S. Hourigan and Inspector Sharpsteen appeared as prosecutors.

AINERY INTRODUCES BILL

Congressman Working Hard in Interest of Veterans.

(Special to The Citizen.) WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 12.—Congressman Ainey has just introduced a bill in Congress which is eminently fair, and will be of much interest to the people of Pennsylvania, providing that those who served in the Pennsylvania Militia, or the Provisional Militia during the Civil war, shall hereafter be considered and treated as if they were regularly mustered into the Federal Army. His bill also provides that the Secretary of War shall issue certificates of honorable discharge to those thus entitled, and that the provisions of the pension laws shall be applicable to them.

The great principle which Alexander Hamilton advocated, and which ultimately became the adopted policy of this country, is really involved. It was through his efforts that the money expended and indebtedness incurred by the several colonies in the War of the Revolution, was assumed by, and funded into the national debt.

On equal and similar grounds, as well as upon the higher one of national gratitude for patriotic effort, the National Government ought to place those members of the State Militia who met the special need of our country at the high tide of the Rebellion upon a footing where their patriotism and loyalty will be properly recognized.

Mr. Ainey's bill seeks to accomplish this.

BURGLARS AT WAYMART.

No clue has as yet been apprehended in the Waymart burglary of last Thursday night. Burglars entered two Waymart business places, taking money and other sundries from both. It is presumed that the drug store of J. E. Stewart was burglarized first, as the Gildea Hotel, Canaan Corners, was not entered until after three o'clock that morning, according to what Mr. Gildea says. In conversation with him he told a Citizen representative that entrance was gained through the window on the porch of the bar room. Two steel bars about a quarter of an inch in thickness were cut in two as with a pipe cutter. A section of the window was then taken out and the latch unfastened. The parties, as Mr. Gildea thinks there was more than one, then unfastened the front door and carried the cash register out into the orchard where they broke it open and secured in the neighborhood of $40.

At the drug store, entrance was gained by removing a pane of glass. A few articles, consisting of perfume, cigars, etc., and about $9 in change was secured.

If Gambling, No State Aid.

Harrisburg, Aug. 13.—Auditor General Sisson has ruled that where "paddle wheels" and similar forms of gambling are permitted on fair grounds the associations holding the fair are violating the laws of the State and cannot receive a share of State appropriations in aid of county fairs. The decision was given in the case of the Cambria County Agricultural Association, which is refused State aid on the ground that its officers did not take steps to check operation of devices at which money was staked.

TO BUILD MODEL CITY.

Lackawanna Road Erecting Forty Houses for Employees of Truesdale Colliery.

(Special to The Citizen.) NANTICOKE, Aug. 13.—The Lackawanna railroad company have 40 houses in course of construction. A model village will be erected, each house costing in the neighborhood of $3,000. They will be ready for occupancy in about three months.

ALLEGED SHOOTING AT PRESTON

Employees Tell Pitiful Stories, Which, if True, Ought to be Investigated.

During the past several weeks, the United Hebrew Charities of Scranton, have been called upon almost daily to render aid to a number of men, coming from points along the Ontario & Western railroad. These men tell harrowing tales of alleged conditions which they were compelled to endure while in the employ of that company near Preston Park, Wayne county. They were hired by various employment agencies in New York city, which advertised for men, offering them $1.50 per day with free lodging. However, the conditions under which they were compelled to labor at the job was but little better than slaves, and from time to time, the men have been compelled to flee from the place penniless.

From two men, Samuel Gessner, of 115 Columbia street and Joe Mox, of 29 Hester street, New York, both of whom arrived in Scranton Friday morning after walking all the way from Preston Park, barely able to stand from fatigue, and the need of food, was given an account of the alleged conditions that, if true, should be investigated by the officials of the company and the parties responsible for the same brought to task. Both men declared they had fled from the place in utter fear of their lives and declared that one of their number who was trying to escape the vigilance of one of the guards was shot down and killed in cold blood last Monday evening. Not only that, but they further declared after the man had been murdered, his murderer pumped lead into his dead body and threatened to give others the same dose if they attempted to leave the place.

The man's name, they declared, was Max Friedman, of New York. He was twenty-six years of age and on August 1 was hired by an employment agency in New York and shipped to Preston Park with others. He was one of a party who rebelled against the conditions and threatened to leave. A number had left, it is alleged, the night before and by some one's orders, whether the contractor or foreman, they alleged a double guard was placed on Monday evening to prevent others from going. One crowd had fled and it is alleged was fired upon by the guard. They arrived in Scranton early in the week and were taken care of, and according to President Schiller, of the United Hebrew Charities, told practically the same stories concerning the alleged brutal treatment given them at Preston Park.

They further stated that the body was shipped from there to Middletown, N. Y., for burial. The railroad officials deny all knowledge of any such crime being committed and declare that none of their special officers made any report of any such matter.

The Ontario & Western station agent reported that outside of some little brawl that took place there on Monday evening he had heard of no murder being committed nor of any shooting. At the postoffice in Preston Park it was reported there was some trouble, but no one was reported killed.

The Jewish societies of Scranton have taken this matter up.

GOING LIKE HOT CAKES.

The Citizen's Spelling Contest Books Are in Great Demand—Teachers and Pupils Anxious to Secure Them.

The Citizen's spelling contest booklet is selling as fast as we can print, assemble and bind them. After vacation time Tom, Tim and Jerry have become rusty in their spelling and are preparing themselves for the spelling contests that will take place in school after the fall term opens. No, sir, he is not going to let that little Smith girl get better of him even if she is taller. There is going to be some studying done this winter in the green school house on the hill and Jerry is going to be one of the successful spellers because he sent to this office for one of the spelling contest books which contains the first thirty lessons that have been printed. It only cost him six cents by mail, but what is that if he can stand at the head of his class. Jerry says he knows of several boys and girls who ought to send six cents to The Citizen office for a booklet like he did. We thank you Jerry for the tip.

Death of Mrs. Jennie Goodwin.

Mrs. Jennie Wheeler Goodwin, formerly of Honesdale, died at her residence, Summer Avenue, Newark, N. J., on Monday, August 12. She is survived by her husband, Mark A. Goodwin, and five children, namely: Mrs. Florence McAllister, Miss Mabel Goodwin, Clarence Goodwin, Mrs. Hattie Eifer and Stuart Goodwin, all of New York. The burial will be made in Honesdale on arrival of the Erie 1:40 train Wednesday. Rev. W. H. Hiller will have the service at the grave.

WOMAN SHOT SNAKE ABOUT TO ENTER HOUSE.

(Special to The Citizen.) CHINCHILLA, Aug. 13.—Mrs. Henry LaRue discovered a large blacksnake at her kitchen door this morning, where it came for milk. She hastened into the house and dispatched it with a rifle.

Dr. Alfred Ullman, of Baltimore, is visiting at the home of Jonas Katz. His wife has been spending the past two weeks with her parents.

THOUSANDS OF FLIES

Nearly Quarter Million of Pesky Things Brought to The Citizen Office—Boys and Girls Eager to Get $10 Prize.

Flies, did you say, well we should say so and thousands of them found their way to this office during the past few days. One contestant has 14,400 of the most harmful "animal" to his credit; another has 8,000 and she is a little girl and lives in Seelyville. Others are trying to get that $10 prize. There is plenty of time to get flies, as the contest does not close until September 30. The first prize will be $10 and the second $5.

There are many people who evidently do not know how many flies it takes to make an ounce—about 4,500 and 1,600 fill a gill measure. Our Waymart contestant, a young lad ten years old, has nine gills to his credit, while the Seelyville Miss has five gills.

To the person guessing the correct or nearest number of flies that will be killed in The Citizen contest will be given The Citizen from October 1 to January 1, 1913, free. Send your guess to the Contest Editor today. Open to everybody.

PENSIONERS IN DISTRESS.

Congressman Fitzgerald of New York, and Congressman Mitchell Palmer of Monroe county, this state, together with other Democratic Congressmen of the North, backed up by the solid Democratic delegation from the South, are holding up the appropriation to pay the pensions of the veterans. This is done to appease the clamor which was raised by the Democrats of the South against their representatives who voted to increase the pensions some months ago. No doubt this meets with the sanction of Governor Wilson, candidate for President on the Democratic ticket, as he was open in denouncing pension laws to soldiers previous to his entering the political field. One old pensioner writes Commissioner Davenport as follows: "I am penniless and among strangers and have had to go to the poor." Many others have appealed in a similar way.

TEAM OF HORSES DISAPPEAR.

(Special to The Citizen.) SCRANTON, Aug. 13.—A team of horses, driven by Richard Guemmel, narrowly escaped suffocation by dropping 35 feet into a mine cave-in of the Diamond mine. The horses were afterwards rescued. The driver and wagon were left on the surface.

SURFACE SAYS A SHORTAGE OF FRUIT.

Central and Southern Pennsylvania will not begin to have anything like the usual fruit crops this year and the storages being circulated through the counties in this part of the State to the effect that we are to have a bumper crop of this or that fruit are either due to ignorance or to buyers who are now out gathering in early crops," said State Zoologist H. A. Surface last week in speaking about the general fruit crop.

"The situation is largely the same in the eastern and western parts of the State, where orchards, unless well sheltered, were hit hard by the severe weather of last winter," continued the doctor. "Now I'll venture to say that the apple crop of Pennsylvania will not run more than 50 per cent. of what it ordinarily is in spite of claims to the contrary, and as for peaches, I doubt whether the crop in this section is going to run much above 5 per cent."

Some Things We Have Never Seen.

Valedictorians who ever made money. A woman who didn't like "East Lynne." A gold mantel clock that would keep time. Thin man who didn't wish he was fat. Fat man who didn't wish he was thin. Grand opera tenor who didn't wear a fur-lined overcoat. Bass fiddle player who looked as though he enjoyed life. Fight over will of a deceased newspaper man.

GUS HARDER INJURED.

When Bit Snaps in Twain—Horse Badly Bruised and Wagon is Demolished in Runaway.

Gus Harder, of Cherry Ridge, while on his way to Honesdale Monday afternoon, to consult his physician, Dr. F. W. Powell, met with an accident in which he was thrown from his buggy, caused by the breaking of the bit in the horse's mouth. As the bit broke the wagon simultaneously struck a stone in the road which jolted the whip out of its socket. This started the horse at breakneck speed. Mr. Harder realizing that he could not check it from its maddening run, dropped the reins. The horse dashed on, leaving Mr. Harder on the ground, and it was not caught until it reached Holl Bros' barn, Honesdale. The wagon was demolished to kindling wood, while the horse was badly cut and bruised. Mr. Harder received no broken bones but is suffering from the shock.

LODORE FARMER REAPS HARVEST.

A great many drivers of automobiles and carriages were incensed Merchants' Day when they were held up and charged for admission to the picnic grounds at Lake Lodore. They at first believed that the Merchants' Association was responsible, but in justice to the association it should be explained that entrance to the grounds is through a farmer's right-of-way and the thrifty farmer always ready to make hay when the sun shines, rigged up his little private toll gate and made enough to take him and his darters to Lake George for an outing. The Merchants' Association had no authority and were powerless to stop the tribute to the farmer's enterprise.—Carbondale Leader.

A MYSTERIOUS FIRE

Dwelling Occupied by Four Tenants—Fire Started in Basement—Investigation Being Made.

A mysterious fire broke out at 1:30 Tuesday morning in the tenement house occupied by Mrs. Charles Nieman, Mrs. Chris. Smith, Mrs. Elsworth Cooney and Frank Robinson. The fire was confined to the basement of the Nieman apartment. Hose Company No. 1's new chemical engine was soon at the conflagration as were also Protection Engine company No. 3, and Texas fire companies. Entrance to the cellar was gained after some difficulty. The chemicals were applied and within a few moments after the fire was discovered, it was extinguished.

In the Nieman cellar were found matches strewn upon the basement floor. The fire was burning at two places at the same time, one in the northeastern part of the building and the other in the western section, but both were in the cellar. The fire was working its way up the studding from openings near the baseboard. In some places were paper, old cloth and straw protruding therefrom. Mrs. Nieman and her daughter claim that they were asleep and were awakened by the smoke.

Detective N. B. Spencer was authorized to make a search of the premises on Tuesday morning and it is claimed he found inflammable material which bore an odor unpleasant to the olfactory nerves.

This is the second fire in this part of the building, the other time occurring one evening in the early part of summer. Since Mr. Nieman's death, the widow has been conducting a sale, and endeavored to dispose of her late husband's store stock, which consisted of second-hand clothing, boots, shoes, etc.

It is claimed that Mrs. Nieman had some words with her landlord, Attorney F. P. Kimble, on Monday at which time he ordered her to vacate the building.

HYMENEAL.

Korb—Bunnell.

Edward M. Korb and Miss Bessie M. Bunnell were married Monday morning, August 12, at 6 o'clock, at the home of the bride at East Honesdale, by Rev. C. C. Miller. Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served, after which the couple left on the 6:55 train for Warren, Pa., and other points, expecting to be absent about two weeks. Upon their return they will go housekeeping in their new home recently purchased by Mr. Korb of Edward Deltzer on Willow avenue. The bride has taught school in Wayne county for a number of years; while the bridegroom is a graduate prescription clerk at A. M. Leine's drug store. Mr. and Mrs. Korb have a large circle of friends who join in wishing them much happiness.

CARLOAD OF SHEEP

Arrive in Honesdale on Tuesday for Stock Farm in Berlin.

A consignment of 224 stock sheep arrived in Honesdale on Tuesday via Delaware and Hudson company for Guiseppe Liccone, of Berlin township. The sheep, 224 all told, came from Summerville, North Carolina. They stood the long journey remarkably well.

VETERAN REUNION.

The 17th annual reunion of Co. B, 3rd Regiment, Pa. Vols. will be held at Lake Ariel Saturday, August 31st. All veterans are cordially invited to join with us on that day. There will be good speakers for the occasion. Come boys, and bring your families and let us have a grand reunion. L. T. Adams, President.
